

David Cotterrell: Transports of Delight Closing Event - 12.11.22

Date: 12th November 2022

David's new installation work, Bodegon 1, has been included within the exhibition, Transports of Delight at Danielle Arnaud Gallery, London.

The exhibition includes artworks by twenty-three artists responding to themes of colonialism, environment and the collection and display of plants associated with broader historical narratives. The gallery is open 2-6pm Thursday, Friday, Saturday, or by appointment until the 12th November.

A closing event for the exhibition will be held on Saturday 12th November from 4-6pm

At 4:30pm: Edward Chell, artist, writer and curator, will talk about the historical context of this exhibition and its relevance to current times. It will be followed by tea and cakes.

Gallery Location :123 Kennington Road London SE11 6SF

Please contact danielle@daniellearnaud.com for further enquiries.

Installation View Credit: © Oskar Proctor (2022)

Helen Maurer 'Looking Out and In Again' 2022 Credit: © Oskar Proctor (2022)

David Cotterrell 'Bodegon 1' 2022 Credit: © Oskar Proctor (2022)